KONSTRUCTION Expandable Loop Workstation

New Virtual Instrument Powered by Kontakt & Infinite Player

Konstruktion is a powerful and easy to use expandable loop workstation featuring thousands of 24bit Rex files conveniently mapped across the keyboard in song style "construction kits". Loops instantly follow the tempo of your host sequencer and can be triggered simultaneously from the keyboard in any combination. Riffs, grooves and effects from acoustic and electronic drums, percussion, bass, guitars, vocals, horns, strings, keyboards and synths are included for instant song creation and the ultimate variety of inspiration. Konstruktion can be used for diverse music styles from Hip Hop to R&B, Pop, Rock, TV, Film and Game Scoring, Electronic Music and more! It can be further expanded with downloadable Konstruktion Paks which are additional sound collections themed by specific styles of music.

Konstruktion Paks:

Modern Hip Hop 1

From Virginia to Miami. Then up to New York. Modern Hip Hop is what's hot right now. This Konstruktion Pak is like 3 libraries in one. It comes with 8 all new Dirty South 2 song construction kits, the sequel to our popular Dirty South Style Pak. It also includes 9 Modern Dance & Rap construction kits complete with punchy beats, deep bass lines, quirky rhythms & catchy melodies, hip hop and techno style effects, electronic elements and even license free rap vocals are included in this monster Konstruktion Pak!

Modern Hip Hop 2

Continuing from where Modern Hip Hop 1 left off, this Pak Features 25 song construction kits ranging from 60bpm to 115bpm. Hard Drums that Kick and Snap right in your face. Synth influenced music where Sawtooths and Squares battle for influence. The chord changes are thoughtful and almost always in minor scales. Serious music for singers to write over and rappers to test their skills. Modern Hip Hop 2 is a snapshot of the R&B Hip Hop Top 40 that will still be relevant 5 years from now.

House Konstruktion

For those looking for fresh new electronic grooves and pulsing synth loops look no further! House Konstruktion features 19 powerful song construction kits in various styles of House. With BPMs ranging from 105 all the way to 162 it is a diverse collection filled with inspiring sound sources for the electronic artist. Additional FX slices also included are like icing on the cake!

Miami Club

The sound of Breakbeats, House, and Booty music collide in an audio portrait of South Beach. Go from club to club with this mix and you will be the DJ to see. Flashing lights and packed dance floors are sure to be your lifestyle when you go to the Miami Club. Includes Killer Drum Machine Beats and Highly Technical, Stutter Effected Drum Rolls. Grimey Distorted Basslines give way to Chopped up emotional strings that flutter back and forth on the Frequency Dial. Copyright free Vocal Performances can be used to make remix after remix. If you run out of steam just grab an energy drink and mix these loops.

More Konstruktion Paks:

A wide range of titles are available on downloadablesoundz.com. In addition to the four Paks above other titles include Reggae Konstruktion, Latin Grooves, Dirty South, Old Skool Hip Hop and more!
